In Re:  SHARONN E THOMAS-POPE  Debtor	Case No: 17-14588-elf  Chapter: 13

Motion To Voluntarily Dismiss Case Pursuant To 11 U.S. Code § 1307(b)

1. 11 U.S. Code § 1307 (b) states that “on request of the debtor at any time, if the case has not been converted ..., the court shall dismiss a case under this chapter. Any waiver of the right to dismiss under this subsection is unenforceable.”
2. This case was not converted under any of the relevant statutes.
3. This motion may be considered ex parte.
4. There are no parties that will be prejudiced by allowing this case to be dismissed.
5. This bankruptcy was filed on July 6, 2017.

6. Since that time, debtor has been working tirelessly on trying to resolve the outstanding mortgages via loan modifications, and working with the other creditors to try and get her plan to be feasible.
7. While the modifications have started to become successful, success has not come quickly enough.
8. Further, while certainly creditors have been willing to discuss the matter and have been open to negotiations, even at the best of terms, debtor could get her plan to become feasible.
9. Debtor fully intends on working with her creditors long-term to reach amicable resolutions, however, she cannot at this time obtain a plan that would be feasible without being able to finalize the modifications.
10. As such, while she entered bankruptcy and has diligently tried to resolve all of the outstanding matters towards confirmation, she has not been able to do so at this time.

WHEREFORE, Debtor requests that this Honorable Court grant her request to voluntarily dismiss the case at this time.
